A SPLENDID OFFER IN THE UPPER VALLEY. THE UPPER VALLEY.

This is a tract of 128 acres, lying about 3 miles or less of Canutillo. It consists of a fine rich soil, all silt, and is therefore highly productive, and the quality is lasting. Lands in the immediate vicinity are selling at $150 and over per acre. These same lands formerly sold at the price at which we are holding this, and doubled in value within less than two years time. We are offering this at the price which other lands brought? years ago and the opportunities for increase in value are the same or better, if you will investigate this you will be convinced that it is a most attractive bargain, with a certain future, at the price of $50 per acre. certain future, at the price of $80 per acre. G. A. R. VETERANS PARADE IN RAIN

Hundreds at Chattanooga Rush Into Ranks to Shake Hands With Marchers—Confederates Not In Parade.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 17.— Through a misty rain, several thousand union veterans and sons of veterans, marched today in the 47th annual parade of the Grand Army of the Re-Enthusiasm of the crowds frequently interrupted the progress of the parade, as hundreds rushed into the ranks of the marchers to shake hands with the veterans. An unofficial order conveyted by some unknown persons to Col. L. T. Dickinson, adjutant of the N. B. Forcest camp of Confederate veterans, prevented that camp from participating in the parade. Tairty Confederate veterans clad in gray, were ready to march the parade. Tairty Confederate veter-ans clad in gray, were ready to march with Col. H. Anson and Forsythe post te veterans and an investigation has een instituted.

The order purported to come from ommander in chief Alfred Beers, of he G. A. R., but Gen. Beers emphatically denied any knowledge of ft. Half a dozen Confederate veterans in gray uniform, were taken "prisoners" by union veterans during the progress of the parade and, amid shouls of laughter, forced to participate in it, being heartily cheered by spectators.
